

House Resolution No. 2552

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are proud to applaud the noteworthy endeavors of an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional leadership in service to her community and her fellow citizens; and

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that this legislative body pauses to recognize Anna Chollet of St. Louis, Missouri, who will receive a Prudential Spirit of Community Awards Certificate of Excellence during a special presentation to be held May 12, 2003; and

Whereas, The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards are presented annually by The Prudential Insurance Company of America and the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) as a means of honoring young people across America for self-initiated community service activities; and

Whereas, now in its eighth year, The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards were created to encourage young people to play an integral role in their community through volunteer activity; and

Whereas, Anna Chollet has worked as a volunteer for the Appalachian Service Project for the past four years, during which time she has helped build houses and repair the floors and roofs of the houses of poor families in Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, and Tennessee; and

Whereas, Anna Chollet has worked to raise funds for the project and has raised $175 to cover her expenses and transportation costs necessary for her to participate in the Appalachian Service Project; and

Whereas, Anna Chollet looks forward to her future participation in the Appalachian Service Project and hopes to become a member of the staff one day; and

Whereas, the success of the Show-Me State, the strength of the St. Louis community, and the overall vitality of American society have been refined by such exemplary young women as Anna Chollet, who has utilized her remarkable skill and considerable talent to serve others:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in commending and applauding Anna Chollet at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success as she continues to work for the overall betterment of her community; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Anna Chollet.
